By Yesterday Evening's Mails.

FAUGUIER COUNTY .- Mr. John G. Becklastices of Fauquier, in which he aske them. Monday next to refund to him the loss aly sustained by him in the erection of the abstantial and handsome Court-house which now graces our town. It strikes us that the request is a very modest and reasonable one, and one which, in our judgment, the Court would do an eminently just and proper act grant. Mr. B. is known by all of them, we presume, to be one of our most industrious, worthy, and enterprising citizens, and their decision to return to him the moderate sum for which he appeals to their justice and interality, would, we are sure be received with pleasure by his numerous friends.

The Farm of James Rogers, esq., was ofwithdrawn-the highest bid only being $35, per sore. This farm is one of the most valuable and productive in the county .- Warrodon Flag.

The greatest rains ever remembered have recently occurred in this county, and section. Streams that had never been known before, to impede progress, for an instant. were so swellen as to sweep away fences and destroy property to a considerable amount.

From present indications, partridges will he found in abundance this fall in Fauquier. years old .- Rich. Dis. Let the hunters commence not too soon .-Quantities of woodcock and spipe have already been killed; a few days since, two of or friends in this place, killed as many as twenty five in an evening's hunt.

Mr. Dudley M. Pattie, has recently sold to with seventeen acres of land attached, situated on the Railroad, and just outside the Corporation limits, for the sum of $5,250, a very good pile at this particular hard time, but not too much for the property.

The terrible hot weather of the past few days, has caused the wheat to ripen so fast that harvest will commence next week.

The Bridge on the Rappahannock, at Waterloo, has been repaired.

Chickens in quantities are now brought to Warrenton, and sold at prices varying from one dollar and twenty cents to nine shillings,

The wheat crop is coming on much better than we had reason to hope ten days ago .--Warrenton Whig.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY .- Hugh Lilly, living Early was admitted to bail .- Lynch. Virg'n in McGahevsville, whilst engaged in blasting rocks on the farm of Col. Mauzy, on Saturday, was very seriously injured by the premature explosion of a blast. He was engagoff, inflicting several severe wounds on the person of Mr. Lilly. His left arm was very much injured, and one of his eyes almost entirely, if not quite, destroyed. A swindler, who has been imposing upon the people of the Valley, succeeded in defrauding our friend, R. W. Palmer, of Port Republic, in this county. Several other gentlemen of our county were also the victims of the rascal who trades in gutta percha pens and yankee wrapping paper.

A gentleman named Jordon, who went to Mt. Crawford from Shenandoah, last spring, London. to superintend a tannery for Mr. Abraham Funkhouser, died very suddenly on Sunday last. He had been to church in the morn ing and seemed to be in good health. He was conversing with a friend when his head fell back and he died almost was about 60 years of age.

The June Term of the County Court commenced on Monday and continued two days.

L. W. Gambill, who was elected Clerk of the Court for six years, appeared in court, took the oath of office, and entered into bond, with security for five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful execution of the duties

The Constables recently elected were qualified and gave bond with security, according to law. James Kenney, esq., was qualified as a Notary Public for this county. John R. Koogler, Sheriff, was qualified and the bond required for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, in the sum of ninety thousand dollars.

John J. Bowman was qualified as a Notary Public for this county. George W. Eutzler, who was charged with feloniously stabbing A. J. Sigler, was exammed by the Court, and remanded for trial before the Circuit Court at its next term for said offence. He was admitted to bail. Samuel Shacklett, Railroad Agent for this county, made his report. Amongst other things he presented eleven bonds of the county, which he had redeemed according to the order of the Court.

Messrs. A. St. C. Sprinkel, D. H. Gambill, and William D. Trout were admitted as Deputies to the Clerk of the County Court of Rockingham.

H. B. Hansberger, esq., elected Surveyor of the County of Rockingham, was duly qualified, according to law. It was ordered that the President and Directors of the Manassas Cap Railroad Company be requested to finish the difficult points on this road from Mt. Jackson to Harrisonburg, as soon as it can be done, having due regard to the interests of the Company. The Court refused to remodel the Court crop in this county is now nearly ready for barvesting, and the yield promises to be an shundant one, notwithstanding the rust .-Corn is short and looking badly.

ORANGE COUNTY .- Messrs. Spooner & Darrow, contractors for the erection of the new Court House in this place have gotten most of their material in place. They commenced laying brick on Wednesday last. Notwithstanding the many disadvantages under for putting up fruit, tomatoes, &c. The price which they have to labor, we predict their and simplicity of the Jar, render it more desirawork will be completed long before the time | ble than any yet made. specified by contract.

The new Baptist Church at the Court-House was dedicated on Friday last. Doctors Burrows Quarles and Rev. J. Walker George were in attendance. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Doctor Burrows. Wethink it one of the ablest and most appropriate discourses we have heard for years.

Harvest commenced generally in this section on Monday. The crop is more materially injured by scab, fly and rust, than at first appeared from a cursory review of the fields. Farmers are croaking mournfully over the quality and quantity of their crops, which this season have suffered from an usual variety of injurious influences .- Chron.

FATAL AFFRAY .- CHURCH VIEW, MIDDLEsex Co , VA., June 23 .- A very unfortunate ham, of this place, has had printed, in the difficulty occurred at Centreville, King and hape of a circular letter, an appeal to the Queen county, on the 17th inst., which ter-The persons engaged in the affray, were a Mr. Gogerty, a school teacher, and two Messrs. Bristow's, father and son; and the circumstances, as far as I can learn, are as follows:--One of the elder Bristow's sons was a pupil of Gogerty, and being guilty of some misconduct, Gogerty flogged him-some say best him with his fist. The father of young Bristow and Gogerty met soon after. an altercation ensued, and Gogerty struck arms around Gogerty's body, as if attempting to pull him from his father, and plunged a knife into G.'s body, the blade entering just below the ribs, on the right side. FIRE IN GOSPORT. - NORFOLK, VA., June 23. -The old unoccupied brick building, known as the India warehouse, and near the navy yard, was burnt this morning, about 3 o'clock. It was owned by the Branch Bank Mrs. Lydia Stephens, his dwelling house, of Virginia, in Portsmouth, and was formerly occupied by Messrs. Page & Allen. Cost about $6,000. No insurance. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

> An unfortunate altercation occurred at the Merchants' Bank, of this city, yesterday, between Mr. Wm. King, and Dr. Robert Early, wherein the former received a serious injury from a knife which was in the hands of the latter, when the difficulty commenced. From the evidence elicited before the examining court, it was apparent that the quarrel was altogether unpremeditated, and that the weapon used was not drawn for the purpose. The parties to the affair are worthy gentlemen, and highly esteemed in the community. We sympathise with both the gentlemen and their families, and sincerely trust that nothiog fatal will ensue. When we saw Mr. King last evening, he was comfortable. Dr.
